CLASSIFICATION PURPOSE:

The primary purpose of the OMB Budget Analyst 2 classification works under general supervision and requires considerable knowledge of public budgeting or finance in order to analyze both fiscal and program activities for assigned agencies and areas of responsibility, which includes staffing and preparing comprehensive reports for the Franklin County Human Services Levy Review Committee (HSLRC).

JOB DUTIES:

Analyze the annual budget requests for assigned entities in order to maintain the county’s expenditure control and ensure the fiscal accountability of county programs. Advise and train county entities on budget preparation, budget policies, and appropriate methods for monitoring actual revenues and expenditures. Assist in revision of strategic business plans, performance measures, and budget structure. Prepare budget briefs and provide recommendations to management staff and county administration on matters concerning budgets.

Research, analyze, review, and make recommendations regarding performance measures, management reports, and financial data for county human services agencies. Staff the HSLRC and serve in an advisory capacity with the Alcohol, Drug and Mental Health Board, Board of Developmental Disabilities, Children Services, and Office on Aging. Evaluate levy requests from both financial and programmatic aspects to ensure that information provided by the agency has been analyzed and evaluated in a logical and consistent manner. Prepare comprehensive reports, including revenue, expenditures, and fund balance forecasts, for the Board of Commissioners, county administration, and HSLRC to clearly communicate findings and recommendations for each agency. Assist with administering federal awards, including subrecipient monitoring, to ensure compliance with guidelines for implementation and reporting.

Analyze current year revenue, expenditure, and performance data in order to prepare various financial reports and forecasts of revenues and expenditures. Investigate budgetary problems and imbalances and make recommendations to supervisor regarding corrective actions. Research, recommend, and prepare resolutions and other fiscal analyses. Assist supervisor in developing departmental policies and procedures on appropriate methods. Analyze county, state and federal legislation and regulations to determine budgetary impact. Respond to requests and inquiries from the public, county administration, Board of Commissioners, and other county entities. Prepare and draft other correspondence and research memoranda as required. Attend trainings as assigned and stay current on regulatory and statutory requirements. Maintain regular and predictable attendance.

These duties are illustrative only and you may perform some or all of these duties or other job-related duties as assigned.

MAJOR WORKER CHARACTERISTICS:

Knowledge of budgeting; accounting; agency policy and procedures; government structure and process. Skill in office equipment operation. Ability to deal with problems involving several variables in familiar contexts; calculate fractions, decimals and percentages; use statistical analysis; prepare meaningful, concise and accurate reports; draft comprehensive documents incorporating feedback from multiple sources; use proper research methods in gathering data; gather, collate and classify information about data, people or things; cooperate with coworkers on group projects.
